

The Daily Courant.

Friday, October, 9. 1702.

From the Leiden Gazette, Dated Oct. 12.

THEY write from Venice of the 29th ult. that the Ambassadors Extraordinary of the Republick, who are nominated to go to compliment the King of Spain, on his Accession to the Throne, were to set out for Milan with all expedition, having already sent before their heavy Baggage. That the Count de Berka, the Emperor's Ambassador, had communicated to the Regency of Venice, the News of the taking of Landau by the King of the Romans. That the English Consul had likewise presented to their Lordships a Letter from the Queen of England; The purport of that Letter is not yet known, but 'tis currently reported That Admiral Fairbone is come into the Mediterranean, with a Squadron of English and Dutch Men of War, with Orders to take, sink, or burn all the French Vessels that he meets, tho in the Harbours of the Pope, the Republick of Venice, or other Potentates of Italy; and also to transport several thousand Croatians from Fiume to Naples to assist the Emperor's Party in that Kingdom. And that it was talk'd, that on the Report of the Coming of this Squadron, the Cardinal d' Erees had sent order to the Chevalier Fourbin to retire out of the Gulf with the French Frigates; and that he was gone accordingly; but it is not certainly known what Course he has taken, some Advices saying that he is gone to Sicily, and others to Provence.

From the Harlem Courant, Dated Oct. 14.

Mittau, Sept. 25. Letters from Dorpt of the 17th of September advise that the Muscovites were in motion in their Neighbourhood, but had not yet invested that Place. They have demolish'd Marienburg. 'Tis reported that the Czar is with 50000 men at Pleskow. Not far from Birsen the Partisans of Oginski have fall'n upon Count Lewenhaupt, kill'd 30 and wounded several of his men; we have sent some Companys from hence to reinforce the Count.

Frankfort, Oct. 8. All things are ready for the Departure of the King and Queen of the Romans thro' Saxony to Vienna; to morrow their Majesties set out from Heidelberg to Aischaffenburg, where they will be magnificently entertain'd by the Elector of Mentz; from whence they will continue their Journey.

Hannover, Oct. 7. This Court has absolutely declar'd for the Emperor against the Elector of Bavaria.

Hamburg, Oct. 10. Yesterday the Corps of the Duke of Holstein Gottorp, who was kill'd in Poland, was brought to Reynbek, and will be carried to Sleswyck.

Wesel, Oct. 10. The French under Count Tallard plunder'd several Villages in the Dutchy of Bergues; upon which the Boors drew together, and fell'd Trees, and laid them cross the Roads to hinder the Enemy from overrunning all the Country. 'Tis said that General Tob being on the march with 10000 men against the French, they retir'd in great hurry. P. S. To day advice came that General Tob is sat down before Bonn.

Warsaw, Sept. 28. The Ambassadors that are depur'd from the Republick, to offer Terms of Accommodation to the King of Sweden, having receiv'd their full Instructions, have sent their Secretary before to acquaint that King with their coming. To day or to morrow they will set forward themselves, and wait for the return of their Secretary some miles short of Cracow.

Amsterdam, Oct. 13. Letters of the 4th from Dantzick advise, that the King of Poland is still at Warsaw, but that his Forces are gone towards Prussia; Preparations are making at Toorn and Elbing for the Reception of his Majesty. 'Tis said the King of Prussia will come into Prussia likewise. They write from Wesel of the 10th, that some of the Prussian Regiments that serv'd before Ruremond, marched into Goch, Calcar and other Places on Tuesday last, having Orders to invest Rhinberg; and that some Deputy's were come out of the Spanish Gelderland to Wesel, to treat of the Contributions that are demanded by the King of Prussia, viz. 300000 Rixdollars.

From the Harlem Courant, Dated Octob. 12.

Ostend, Oct. 6. On Tuesday morning last Captain Mansfelt went out of our Harbour in the St. Francis, a Ship of 18 Guns and 160 men. Next day he came up with some Dutch Herring Busses, who were convoy'd by a Vessel of 24 Guns and 136 Men, call'd the Julius Cæsar; he attack'd this Ship twice, and was beaten off, but the third time he carried her; and yesterday brought her in hither. The Fight lasted 3 Glasses. Of the St. Francis 5 men were kill'd and 7 wounded; of the Enemy 16 were kill'd and 18 wounded, the Captain and all the Officers were slain.

Amsterdam, Oct. 11. The last Letters from Wesel say that an entire Company of the French were come over to them out of Rhinberg, who report that the Garrison have been in want of their Pay a long time, that a great many of them are dead or sick, and that there are not above 16 sound men in a Company. They are making the necessary Preparations at Wesel for the Siege of Rhinberg.

Vienna, Sept. 27. They write from Italy that a Commissary who was to buy Provisions for the Army to the value of 30000 Guilders, was gone over to the Enemy with the Money. 'Tis discours'd that most of the Horse will be commanded from Italy to come into Austria, and that a greater number of Foot will be sent in their room, who will be more serviceable in Italy than the Horse; to which end 6000 Peasants of the Province of Tyrol who are expert at shooting, will quickly march thither.

Plymouth.

Plymouth, Oct. 4. Yesterday came in from Rotterdam the Elizabeth and Katherine of London for Dublin, the Shrewsbury Gally from London for Guinea, with several foreign Ships who are sailed again under Convoy of the Hastings and Dolphin with 60 Vessels for Wales, Bristol and Ireland. There came in also the Olive Branch of Topsham from Barbadoes for London.

Dartmouth, Oct. 4. This day came in the Mull Frigat with Fruit from Lisbon in 5 weeks for London, but brings no News.
